Chapter 13

#1.00 Application for Compensation

EH__

Docket 129

Tentative Ruling:

7/6/17

Dana Travis ("Applicant") substituted into the case at the time when Debtors were attempting to convert to Chapter 13 (on 1/31/17). The motion to convert was filed the same day, was opposed by the Chapter 7 trustee, and a hearing was set for March 1, 2017. The hearing was continued for Debtors to provide evidence of new employment that would enable a plan to be confirmed. Evidence was filed with the Court on March 7, 2017, and, after stipulation between Debtors and the Chapter 7 trustee, the case was converted to Chapter 13 on April 4, 2017.

On April 12, 2017, Debtors filed their Chapter 13 plan, and the plan was confirmed on May 22, 2017. On May 23, 2017, Applicant filed the instant fee application. On June 5, 2017, Trustee filed comments, taking no position on the application. On June 12, 2017, the Court set the matter for hearing.

11 U.S.C. § 330(a)(3) (2005) provides factors to be considered in determining the reasonableness of requested compensation.

First, the Court notes that Local Rule 3015-(1)(v)(5) and Local Rule 2016-(1) outline directions when filing a supplemental fee application. Here, Applicant has not filed an application that conforms with Local Rule 2016-(1), but has simply provided the Court with an itemized invoice and a cover sheet.

Second, the Court notes that adding up the itemized amounts (the final column) in the invoice produces a figure of $6,970, yet Applicant has requested $7,650. Therefore, the Court will reduce fees by $680.

Chapter 13

Finally, the Court has reviewed the fee application and finds the fees to be generally reasonable and necessary. Nevertheless, the Court makes the following reductions:

- 1) a reduction of $500 for two entries that simply state "consultation clients" (dated 1/30 and 2/20). In the absence of further information, the Court finds the entries to be vague;
- 2) a reduction of $200 related to preparation of the motion to convert (entry dated 1/30). The Court has reviewed the motion, which was relatively straightforward, and finds 1.5 hours to be excessive;
- 3) a reduction of $180 corresponding to the time entries related to the continued hearing on the motion to convert (dated 4/5 and 4/6). At the time of these two time entries, the hearing had been vacated and, therefore, these entries are unreasonable and unclear.

Tentative:

The Court is inclined to APPROVE the application in the reduced amount of $6,090.

EH__

Docket 64

Tentative Ruling:

7/6/17

11 U.S.C. § 330(a)(3) (2005) provides factors to be considered in determining the reasonableness of requested compensation.

Wells Fargo Bank filed a motion for relief from stay (real property), seeking relief under § 362(d)(1) because Debtors were six months behind on their post-confirmation payments. Debtors filed a standard opposition, stating that they would cure or enter into an adequate protection agreement. The hearing was continued twice, and then the parties entered into an adequate protection agreement.

Trustee's opposition is generic and does not identify any specific time entries which the Trustee believes are unreasonable or excessive. All of the entries are either for 0.1 or 0.2 hours, except for three entries regarding attendance at the two hearings and the filing of the opposition, all of which are either 0.3 or 0.35 hours. While there are a number of entries for 0.1 or 0.2 hours, the entries that relate to entering into an adequate protection payment appear reasonable.

There are also four entries, totaling 0.6 hours, which appear to reflect time Applicant spent helping the client make their monthly mortgage payments (on 4/11/17 and 5/15/17). The Court will reduce these entries by 0.3 hours, totaling $118.50, because it is unclear why Applicant needed to consult with their client about the mortgage payments, and it seems unreasonable to bill the client $39.50 for transmitting the monthly mortgage payment.

Docket 34

Tentative Ruling:

7/6/17

Background:

On July 15, 2016, Anthony & Cynthia Parker ("Debtors") filed a Chapter 13 voluntary petition. On July 18, 2016, Cavalry SPV II, LLC ("Creditor") filed proof of claim #1, an unsecured claim in the amount of $1,209.03 ("Claim 1"). On September 1, 2016, Debtors' Chapter 13 plan was confirmed. On November 18, 2016, Creditor filed proof of claim #10, an unsecured claim in the amount of $873.10 ("Claim 10").

On June 6, 2017, Debtors filed a claim objection to Claim 1 and Claim 10.

Applicable Law:

Pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 502(a), a proof of claim is deemed allowed unless a party in interest objects. Absent an objection, a proof of claim constitutes prima facie evidence of the validity and amount of the claim under Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure ("FRBP") 3001(f). *See Lundell v. F.3d 1035, 1039 (9th Cir. 2000). When a party files an objection to a proof of claim, that filing "creates a dispute which is a contested matter" within the meaning of FRBP 9014 and the Court must resolve the matter after notice and opportunity for hearing upon a motion for relief. Id.

When a creditor has filed a proof of claim that complies with the rules (thereby giving rise to the presumption of validity), the burden shifts to the objecting party who must "present evidence to overcome the prima facie case." In re Medina, 205 B.R. 216, 222 (9th Cir. B.A.P. 1996). To defeat the claim, the objecting party must provide sufficient evidence and "show facts tending to defeat the claim by probative force equal to that of the allegations of the proofs of claim themselves." Lundell, 223 F.3d at 1039 (quoting In re Holm, 931 F.2d 620, 623 (9th Cir. 1991)). "The objector must produce evidence, which, if believed, would refute at least one of the allegations that is essential to the claim's legal sufficiency." Lundell, 223 F.3d at 1040 (quoting In re Allegheny Int'l, Inc., 954 F.2d 167, 173-74 (3d Cir. 1992)). If the objecting party produces sufficient evidence to negate one or more of the sworn facts in the proof of claim, the burden reverts back to the claimant to prove the validity of the claim by a preponderance of the evidence. See In re Consol. Pioneer Mort, 178 B.R. 222, 226 (9th Cir. BAP 1995), aff'd, 91 F.3d 151 (9th Cir. 1996) (quoting Allegheny Int'l, 954 F.2d at 173-74). The ultimate burden of persuasion remains at all times on the claimant. See Lundell, 223 F.3d at 1039; see also Holm, 931 F.2d at 623.

of the date of the filing of the petition, and shall allow such claim in such amount, except to the extent that –

(1) such claim is unenforceable against the debtor and property of the debtor, under any agreement or applicable for a reason other than because such claim is contingent or unmatured.

Cal. Code Civ. P. § 337 provides a statute of limitations of four years for debts founded on written contracts, book accounts, accounts stated based upon account in writing, "balance of mutual, open and current account in writing," and rescission of written contract. Once the statute of limitations has passed, the claim is unenforceable.

Claim 1 and Claim 10 are both based on credit cards, and, therefore, fall within the scope of Cal Code Civ. P. § 337. The statement of account for Claim 1 states that the last payment was made on August 3, 2009, and that the account was charged off on March 12, 2010. The statement of account for Claim 10 states that the last payment was made on July 31, 2009, and that the account was charged off on March 3, 2010. No activity with regard to either claim occurred within the four years prior the filing of the bankruptcy petition, and, therefore, the statute of limitations has expired.

Furthermore, the Court deems failure to oppose to be consent to the relief requested pursuant to Local Rule 9013-(1)(h).

Tentative Ruling

The Court is inclined to SUSTAIN the objection.

Docket 57

Tentative Ruling:

5/18/17

BACKGROUND

On October 24, 2016, Patricia Morales ("Debtor") filed a Chapter 13 voluntary petition. On January 24, 2017, Debtor's Chapter 13 plan was confirmed.

On April 3, 2017, Trustee's motion to dismiss was granted after no opposition was properly filed. On April 6, 2017, Debtor filed a motion to vacate dismissal (the "First Motion"). Trustee filed his disapproval on April 10, 2017. On April 21, 2017, Debtor filed a late reply that was not served

The Court posted a tentative prior to the hearing on April 27, 2017, that outlined a variety of technical and substantive deficiencies, both legal and factual. At the hearing, Debtor's counsel withdrew the motion. On May 5, 2017, Debtor filed a new motion to vacate dismissal (the "Second Motion").

DISCUSSION

While the Court notes that Debtor appears to have made some attempt to remedy the deficiencies noted in the Court's previous tentative ruling, the Second Motion still contains significant technical and substantive deficiencies, both legal and factual.

First of all, service of the Second Motion is improper. Debtor's service list abruptly cuts off at the letter "L" (creditors listed in alphabetical order).

Second of all, the Second Motion was not calendared and noticed correctly. The motion was set on "regular notice" but Debtor only provided thirteen days notice of the hearing. This is especially concerning because the reason the case was dismissed was because Debtor's opposition to the motion to dismiss was calendared incorrectly.

Third, the Second Motion contains the same general factual deficiencies as the First Motion. Once again, Debtor identifies her failure to file a responsive pleading to Trustee's motion for dismissal as the act to which a 60(b) analysis applies. As the Court noted in its previous tentative, however, Debtor did file an opposition to that motion, but a hearing was not set because Debtor selected incorrect hearing information. Yet, Debtor has opted to include the same assertions in the Second Motion.

Fourth, the majority of Debtor's motion discusses the payment history of Debtor, Debtor's account of which was disputed by Trustee in his opposition to the First Motion. Once again, the exhibits included are not authenticated. Additionally, the Second Motion removes the declaration of Debtor. Instead, in its place, is a declaration of Debtor's counsel, which is simply a verbatim copy of the motion, and otherwise lacks foundation and personal knowledge.

Fifth, while the Second Motion appears to make an attempt to remedy the legal deficiencies of the First Motion, that attempt is inadequate. While the Second Motion, unlike the First Motion, does identify the appropriate legal standard, it is still far from adequate. The motion appears to include two statements that could be characterized as legal, and that are relevant in this matter. The first sentence states: "[T]he court has the authority to grant the relief sought herein pursuant F.R.C.P. 60(b) States: (1) Mistake, inadvertence, surprise, or excusable neglect." The second statement, which occurs before the first, states: "Debtor respectfully requests the court to vacate dismissal and reinstate the bankruptcy case on the following grounds that the reason for her failure to file a responsive opposition to the motion to dismiss was excusable."

Regarding the first sentence, apart from the fact that it is clearly not a sentence, the motion contains no further discussion of the legal standard or how to apply 60(b) to the facts of this case. Regarding the second sentence, apart from the fact that it is grammatically defective, the Court notes, once again, that Debtor did file an opposition to Trustee's motion to dismiss. The second sentence simply misrepresents the record and lacks credibility.

Debtor's previous four filings in this case (the Second Motion, the First Motion and Debtor's reply, and the opposition to Trustee's motion to dismiss) contain numerous technical and substantive deficiencies, are far from legally adequate, and are factually inaccurate. Multiple filings were noticed incorrectly and multiple filings were served incorrectly. More importantly, despite the fact the Court posted a tentative that informed Debtor why the First Motion was inadequate, Debtor has, for the most part, repeated the deficiencies in the Second Motion. The two sentences outlined above appear to constitute the steps taken to respond to the Court's tentative, and those two sentences are simply inadequate.

Tentative Ruling:

For the foregoing reasons, the Court is inclined to CONTINUE the hearing for movant to file/serve amended pleadings and to coincide with a hearing on an order to show cause why Movant's counsel should not be sanctioned.
